

Old woman and her Grand daughter again re-moved from Charles Parrielow house leaving Hannah still in his possession - The defendant then called William Holding by whom he proved that some time in the year 1792 John Ireland Came to the House of Parrielow on a visit, that he and a certain man by the name of Allen were Called into the house and that John Ireland then said he had given the child Hannah to his Grand daughter Ann before, and to make the thing firm as they were young. Now take notice Holding if any claim should come against Charles Parrielow that this child is not Charles Parrielow's property: but the property of his daughter and struck her on the back with a whip, and said now take notice you remember this in a coming day?

The Petitioners then called a witness Mary Chang by whom they proved that about twenty six years ago, her husband John Stark now dead, called on said John Ireland to pay him a debt that Ireland said he had not the money and did not know that he ever should have it. that said Stark told him he had no right to give away his
