

year 1813. J^m Shriver & R. Nelson

In addition to the Evidence stated in the preceding Exceptions (which is to be considered as if here again inserted) the Defendant offered in evidence to the Jury by the testimony of Charles Herston a competent witness that the said Easter the mother of the petitioner was sent by her Master the said Thomas Spigg to the house of the said Herston a few days after the said Herston had married the daughter of the said Spigg in the year 1797. That the said Easter continued with the said Herston until the death of his wife in 1803 before which last mentioned time the petitioner was born being now about 13. or 14 years old a few days after the death of the wife of the said Herston the said Spigg the Master of the petitioner came to the house of the said Herston in Frederick Town in