

This image shows a blank page from a ledger or account book. The page is ruled with a grid of lines. At the top, there is a header section defined by a horizontal line. Below this, the page is divided into several vertical columns of varying widths. From left to right, there are approximately 11 columns. The columns are empty, with no text or numbers written on them. The paper appears slightly aged and has some minor discoloration. The binding of the book is visible on the left edge.
