

This image shows a blank page from a ledger or account book. The page is ruled with a grid of 10 columns and 10 rows. The columns are of varying widths, with the first column on the left being the narrowest and the remaining columns being wider. The rows are of uniform height. The paper is off-white and shows signs of age, including some discoloration and a slight wobble in the center. The page is part of a bound volume, as indicated by the binding edge on the left.
