

This image shows a blank ledger page from an old account book. The page is ruled with a grid of lines. At the top, there is a shaded triangular area with diagonal lines. Below this, a horizontal line separates the header area from the main body of the ledger. The main body is divided into 10 vertical columns of varying widths. The columns are arranged from left to right as follows: a wide column, a medium column, a narrow column, a wide column, a medium column, a narrow column, a wide column, a medium column, a narrow column, and a wide column. The page is otherwise blank, with no text or numbers written in it.
