

This image shows a blank ledger page from an old account book. The page is divided into a header section at the top and a main body section below. The header section is bounded by a horizontal line and contains several diagonal lines sloping downwards from left to right. The main body section is divided into 12 vertical columns of varying widths. The columns are arranged as follows: a wide column on the far left, followed by a narrow column, a wide column, a narrow column, a wide column, a narrow column, a wide column, a narrow column, a wide column, a narrow column, a wide column, and a narrow column on the far right. The paper is aged and shows some minor stains and wear.
