

I wrote to James to come to see us, my old friend Genl. Pack is here in consequence of my letter he introduced himself to James he speaks most highly of him is a real good Officer - it is said that they the General see to send to Madison but it is only a report.

My next letter will probably be with you before this, as it will go by Packet - if our boy is well I shall be happy - as yet I cannot say anything of our return only at the 17th

Published for I don't think it is improbable that when the ships sail for America and are put from under Lord Keith's command