My dear Clementina

I wrote to you yesterday by the Belle Poole and Lou Briton this year by the Packet, I have this morning received yours by the Prisoner she called at Bayne Street.

The Duchess is expected she was in sight when the Prisoner entered the River but our Ships lay sixty miles down the River - nothing seen - only

Hester Pole and Mr. Thos. Sydenham came here from Paris on their way to Madrid to join the Duke who I hope will be of use to advise between the King and the Queen they entirely are not of accord
