

but much I fear that I shall not succeed, you shall hear from me constantly dont fail to write by every Despatch - ~~when~~ you may stop the paper when you are from Plymouth, but whenever you write to me say a few of the latest - but when I see <sup>as</sup> I will all these matters -

Yours always

J. M. Shelton

The papers will not be when I get a considerable time & I would have sent some to Mr. Melrose
