

I expect the Royal Oak and shall have my fly in her. that is a comfort - I dont think we can sail before the end of the month, I therefore wish you to send me any table linen and kitchen and table ~~knives~~ take charge of them if I am gone - you may keep my word, I can do without him, and when you pack wh he will be useful, for I take it for granted, that you will go to London whenever you think may be useful at Irvine, send by way of Liverpool the Bed is the principal article, and the glass, but you must inquire particularly as to the shipping of the latter for it must not be feared if there is any difficulty buy it at
