

Government House where I believe some of my things are at present but what I cannot say is Robert has the account - however do as seems best to yourself - if you have any wine left when you are going - give it in a present to Thompson. I wish our friend Aldermeth was with me. but I shall do very well in his line - for I fear I shall soon join my superior, I shall be delighted to serve with my old friend Lord Hills - I had a letter from him yesterday before he knew that I was to be his colleague telling me that he had sent James here of obscure but that unfortunately the youth had gone on an excursion
