

in another direction for a few days. Now I hope to see him very soon -

I am sorry for his and John's sake that the Chinese merchants are bankrupts - but they must not blame themselves on that account, they are rich enough if they will only think so - I send this by the Packet. you shall hear from by every occasion you letter of the 10th by one Briton put me with good spirits - for I was uneasy for our dear Boy - change of air will do him good - and on his account the more you see every the better travel slow still at Bath a few days of rest will meet you and Helen will return with him I will write her in a day or two -
