My dear Clementina

Lady Palmer gave me a terrible report of our dear Boy but I find that he has been much worse than I imagined, though now he is better I am feeling your anxiety I wish I was not at home for I could not be here of use to him and my anxiety would be increased yours - what could tempt Lady Palmer to come out his Lordship is much recovered his well but he is not pleased your Mr Milnes is very ill they had a most uncomfortable journey up the River 64 miles - Lady Edgely joins home by land there another cut of felly - ~~her~~ her husband is better sailed on the 21st from Boyowne she appears in excellent health - the two was so full that they could not get in I give her name and left in the Drapery room
