

My Dear Clementina 14th Oct. Chesham (30) your letter ^{19th} of the 1st of Aug-was most satisfactory but all that you have written prior to that except by Pocket are crowding - the Pocket is the conveyance and pay all the postage, don't be stingy but make them double and treble letters, I do beg that you will not deny yourself any gratification, in the idea of saving money, I know that you frequently wish to assist others, and are restrained by the efficient comment of your expenses, when we come on a fixed yearly income we will be considerate, and not exceed, but as we are now situated, it is not a consideration of much moment, and I know that you are now so happy as when aiding others.
