

Mr Mullis is extremely sensible the 4th is in a bad state - and the 21st not much better but I believe the Letter Payment did their best Col. Pringle who is now at their head will soon put them into order but I am tired of anatomy of the Army and I can give you no of sending of it, I am tomorrow I visit my Gley on board the Lee Horse with Jorden a most delightful man. when I quit town I go to my friend Rogers of the Dover whose ship does left water and in go further, from the Dover I shall go to my Tender - and I suppose it will be a month before I return to the Royal Ark who accompanies the Admiral off Mobile - The intention is that the Ships of the Line should anchor off the mouth of
