

the Harbor. and lead the Troops that go with them viz four Regiments or Detachments Island. & to the West of Middle Point on which is a Fort that must be taken before we can get Ships into the Bay.
 I go with the remains of the Force between the Islands and the Men and also land on Seaboard Island from whence we shall again embark in Boats to attack the Town - you must trace us or catch -

I shall have this letter to you by the first Dispatch to Jamaica & therefore should have probably said in my absence - but there is nearly no word delighted with his share in my labor I have got my establishment in very good order respecting by extensive
