

I write this from the boat from which we embark, the boats here to go sixty miles to deposit our before they take either - we are now reduced to three thousand but the nature of the ground saves us from attack from the enemy I pursue at this moment, and tomorrow if a red river I now see a mile Chingach, etc etc - as the we become very watchy