

I spoke a week from Cork from which we got a Motley of the 20th of March and a Cork paper with London News of the 26th — so that we are far behind in our information, much no doubt has been done — I see that Mr. Horne has moved for an inquiry into the failure at New Orleans, I believe he is the intimate friend of the Adams I hope they have not furnished him with information given from my sentiments expressed to you — but indeed I don't much care, the statement of the Operator that I sent you will be published. If an inquiry does take place the policy of the Republic will be questioned and considered — that will fall on Cochrane, his instructions will not bear him out — but every thing will be forgotten in the bustle that Boscawen's has created —
