

Week days	Mo day	Place of the Ship at anchor	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
				No.	By What Ship	To What Ship
December 1874
Wednesday	14 th		At 4 p.m. Enemy's gun Boats in sight from the mast head. At 10 a.m. Boat of the Ramillies arrived with an account of the capture of the whole of the Enemy's Flotilla consisting of five gun bidders & a tender.		On board the Sea Horse
	(continued)
Thursday	15 th		A.M. Moderate & fine. Several of the Ships aground others coming in & working up the small Sloops of War, Schooner & Transport Brigades were ordered to move up as far as their draught of water would permit. Such Boats as remained in the Squadron employed carrying the 21 st Regt up to the gun bidders & small vessels in advance. Struck my flag on board the Sea Horse & hoisted it on board the Dover.		On board the Sea Horse & Dover
Friday	16 th		A.M. Fresh breeze and thick weather with rain. Boats employed transporting the 93 rd Regt up to the advanced ships. The Atina Bomb and two Transports of the bowway arrived. Col. Thornton with the Advance of the Army landed on the hill Karangovin.		On board the Dover
Saturday	17 th		A.M. Mod. breeze & haze. Boats of the Fleet employed transporting Troops to the Island occupied by the Advance. The Commander in Chief struck his flag on board the Armide and proceeded to the Advance. Arrived the Nymphe & nearly		On board the Dover	