

February 1815

Week days	Mo	Wind	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals
				By	To	What Ship	What Ship
February 1815
Tuesday 7 th	E. S. W.		A. M. Fine weather Made sail in the Dover till the grounded off At Sunset arrived off Dauphin Island & anchored			On board the Dover
Wednesday 8 th	Northerly		A. M. Mod. breezes & fine W. S. At Daylight landed on the N. W. side of Dauphin Island. Found here a detachment of the 85 th Regiment and part of the 95 th " - Found a good supply of Cattle - In the afternoon three of the Gun Boats arrived with Troops.			On Shore with the Army on Dauphin Island
Thursday 9 th	W. S. W.		A. M. Fine weather - Several small vessels & Boats arrived with Troops - Sent the Gun vessels & other small vessels & Boats for more as they were emptied - went and sounded for a passage between the Island & Main into Mobile Bay -			On Shore with the Army
Friday 10 th	S. W.		A. M. Fine weather Troops arriving - also Tents Provisions Hospital Stores & Enemy's Battery at Mobile Point firing occasionally The Sappers & Miners em- ployed erecting a Battery to oppose them on the point At Midnight heavy rain with Thunder and Lightning			Do -
Saturday 11 th	W. S. W.		A. M. Mod. and Cloudy At Daylight the Battery was ready to open on the Enemy's Fort, which being summoned Surrendered without a gun being fired on our part The Garrison consisted of about 370 persons - about 20 of whom were women and children			Do -
Sunday 12 th	W. S. W.		A. M. Mod. and Cloudy At 9 The Prisoners of the garrison were marched out and embarked in the Boats and conveyed on board the ships			Do -
Monday 13 th	W. S. W.		A. M. Light breezes and fine Hoisted my Flag on board the Royal Oak - U. S. Ship Trager arrived - Royal Oak at anchor off Dauphin Island P. M. - weather			On board the Royal Oak	