

His Majesty's Ship Royal Oak - Sunday 19th March 1815

Week days	M days	Wind	Place of the Ship at anchor	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
					What	No	By what Ship	To what Ship
March 1815				A. M. Fresh gales and Cloudy with rain At Noon Royal Oak and Squadron at anchor P. M. more moderate Several Transports came out of the Harbour At 12 Moderate & Cloudy
Sunday	19 th	S. E.		A. M. moderate & Cloudy Boats employed embarking Troops At Noon Royal Oak and Squadron at anchor P. M. Light breezes and Clear weather At 12 Fresh breezes & fine
Monday	20 th	S. E.		A. M. Fresh breezes & fine Alceste & Bella Poulie with 4 Transports having on board the 48 th & 93 rd Regts sailed for England Observed a Transport coming out of Harbour to ground - Sent Boats to assist her At Noon Royal Oak and Squadron at anchor P. M. Fresh breezes & Cloudy At 12 Light breezes	11	219	Admiral	Diomedes
Tuesday	21 st			The Sabine & Jane Trans- port home off Boats embarking Troops Several Transports coming out of the Harbour The Herald & Caliope arrived At Noon Royal Oak & Squadron at anchor P. M. Light breezes & Cloudy The Norge having on board a detachment of the West India Regiment and two Companies of the 7 th sailed to touch at Port Royal Jamaica & land the West India Troops and proceed to England with the others At 12 Mod. breezes & fine		217, 216		Norge
Wednesday	22 nd	W. S. W.		A. M. Light breezes & fine The Sabine & Jane Trans- port home off Boats embarking Troops Several Transports coming out of the Harbour The Herald & Caliope arrived At Noon Royal Oak & Squadron at anchor P. M. Light breezes & Cloudy The Norge having on board a detachment of the West India Regiment and two Companies of the 7 th sailed to touch at Port Royal Jamaica & land the West India Troops and proceed to England with the others At 12 Mod. breezes & fine
Thursday	23 rd	S. W.		A. M. Mod. and fine W ^z Boats employed embarking Troops At Noon Royal Oak and Squadron at anchor P. M. Moderate breezes and foggy weather At 12 Fresh breezes & Cloudy

Royal Oak At Anchor off Dolphin Island