

His Majesty's Ship Royal Oak - Friday 24th March 1815

Week days	Mo day	Winds	Place at anchor	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
					Sub	Sub	No	By	To
								What Ship	What Ship
March 1815				A. M. Fresh breezes and cloudy weather
Friday 24 th				At noon Royal Oak and Squadron at anchor P. M. Light airs and thick weather At 12 Moderate breezes and cloudy.
				A. M. Moderate breezes and cloudy At noon Royal Oak and Squadron at anchor P. M. Light breezes and fine H. M. Ship G drums sailed for Pensacola. Brought with Major General Lambert and Suite for England. To call at the Havana on her passage. Herald for Apalachicola to convey West India Troops to Jamaica. The Britannia Transport having on board Indian Presents accompanied her. At 12 Moderate breezes and cloudy.
Saturday 25 th				A. M. Moderate breezes and thick weather At noon Royal Oak & Squadron at anchor P. M. Moderate and thick weather At 12 Mod: and fine
Sunday 26 th				A. M. Mod: and fine At noon Royal Oak & Squadron at anchor P. M. do weather. H. M. Schooner Whiting arrived from Cumberland Island At 12 Mod: breezes.
Monday 27 th				A. M. Mod: and fine The Weser & Fraava with 6 Transports having on board the 4 th Regt, Royal Artillery and Invalids, sailed for England To call at the Havana At noon Royal Oak at anchor P. M. Forward arrived w/ Maj. Meade At 12. Moderate & fine
Tuesday 28 th

Royal Oak at anchor off Dauphin Island