

His Majesty's Ship Tartarus in the West Scheldt - June 1815

Week days	Mo	Mandy the ship	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
				At	By	To	By	To
June 1815			A. M. Fresh breezes with rain at times
Sunday 18 th West			At Noon Tartarus and Nightingale at anchor P. M. Strong breezes with rain at times - Struck Top Gal. Mast & ranged the Sheet Cable At Midnight Fresh breezes and cloudy
Monday 19 th West			A. M. Moderate breezes and cloudy weather H. M. Ship Erebus arrived and saluted, which was returned by the Dutch Admiral in Washington At Noon Tartarus, Erebus and Nightingale at anchor P. M. Moderate breezes, the Nightingale sailed for Antwerp At Midnight Moderate breezes and fine weather
Tuesday 20 th S.W.			A. M. Moderate breezes and fine weather At Noon Tartarus and Erebus at anchor P. M. Moderate breezes with flying showers At Midnight do. weather
Wednesday 21 st West			A. M. Light breezes and cloudy weather - A Transport Schooner arrived from Ostend with Dispatches At Noon Tartarus and Erebus at anchor P. M. Light breezes and cloudy weather - The Erebus sailed for the Westward At Midnight Light breezes and cloudy weather

Tartarus in the West Scheldt