

His Majesty's Ship Tartarus in the West Scheldt

Week days	Days	Winds	at Noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
					From	To	By	To
June 1815				A. M. Moderate breezes and fine weather - Observed the Dutch Squadron hoisting the English & Prussian Ensigns in honor of the successes of the allied Armies. Returned the Compliment by hoisting the Dutch and Royal French Flags. At Noon Returned their Salute with 21 guns in commemoration thereof - P. M. do weather with rain At Midnight do - do -
Thursday	23 ^d	W. W.		A. M. Fresh breezes with rain at times H. M. hired armed Schooner Chance arrived from Ostend with Dispatches At Noon Tartarus moved in the Wielinge Passage. P. M. Fresh breezes & clear At Midnight Moderate breezes and fine
Friday	23 ^d	W. W.		A. M. Moderate breezes and fine weather H. M. Gun Brig Sharp shooter arrived with Dispatches and immediately sailed again in company with the Chance At Noon Tartarus moved in the Wielinge Passage. P. M. do. weather At Midnight Fresh breezes with rain.
Saturday	24 th	W. W.		A. M. Fresh breezes with rain at times At Noon Tartarus moved in the Wielinge Passage P. M. do weather At Midnight Fresh breezes and cloudy weather
Sunday	25 th	E. S. E.

Tartarus in the Wielinge Passage - West Scheldt