

His Majesty's Ship Tartarus in the West Scheldt - July 1815

Weeks days	day	wind	at noon	Place of the ship	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals
						Sh	Fl	No	By what ship
July 1815
Tuesday	11 th			N.E.	A. M. Moderate and fine W^z The Venus Dutch Corvette sailed Also a k Cutter Swan with a Convoy of Transports for England; and Pioneer with Transports having wounded Soldiers for Yarmouth At noon Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads P. M. do. weather The American Frigate Congress arrived and anchored At Midnight do. weather
Wednesday	12 th			Ob	A. M. Light variable winds and fine weather At noon Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads P. M. Light airs and fine At Midnight do. weather
Thursday	13 th			Ob	A. M. Light breezes & fine W^z At noon Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads P. M. do. weather At Midnight do. do.
Friday	14 th			West	A. M. Light airs & cloudy At noon Ship Erebus arrived and anchored At noon Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads P. M. Light breezes & fine Saluted the Dutch Admiral on his coming on board At Midnight light airs and cloudy
Saturday	15 th			to	A. M. Fresh breezes and cloudy weather At 8 unmoored ship At 10 weighed & made sail At noon working to windward through the Welinge Passage. P. M. do. weather 4 Came to us 7 fathoms Blakenburg Church S. S. W. Ostend Church W. S. W. At Midnight do. weather

Tartarus moored in Flushing Roads.

Working through the Welinge Passage

156h

156h