

His Majesty's Ship Newcastle - Wednesday 22nd May 1816

Hour	Course	Winds	Name of the Ship at noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
					At	No.	By	To
6	S. E.		Cape Palmas 198 E. 241 miles	A. M. Moderate & Cloudy W^z At 6 Set Royals & Flying Sibs At noon Mod. breezes with rain at times - Orontes in Co. P. M. Easterly Current of 24 miles Light winds with heavy rain At 4 Inclining to Calm At 4-30 Squally with rain Shortened Sail At 12 Light airs inclining to Calm, with much lightning
2	S. E. by S.	bbble
6	S. E. by S.
4	S. E.
4		W. S. W.
4	S. by E.	W. S. W.

His Majesty's Ship Newcastle - Thursday 23rd May 1816

Hour	Course	Winds	Name of the Ship at noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
					At	No.	By	To
			Ascension 14 W. 800 miles	A. M. Calm with rain - At 3 a breeze from W. S. W. At 4 Tried the Current & found it Easty. 1 mile p hour. At noon Light breezes from the Eastward - Orontes in Co. Current setting Eastward 18 miles in 24 hours P. M. Light breezes & fine W^z At 10 Observed Orontes cross our Bows on Starb^d Tack. At 11 Observed her Tack on our Weather Quarter At 12 Do. weather

12 20 Long. 11. 01 Orontes Admiral
 2 " Long. 11. 33 Orontes Admiral