

His Majesty's Ship Newcastle - Sunday 11th August 1816

Week days	Mo	P.M.	Remarks and Occurrences	Signals
				Mo	By	What Ship
Sunday 11th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Moderate & fine W ² At noon do. weather. P. M. do — do. At 12 do — do.
Monday 12th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Mod: and fine. The Griffon arrived. At noon do. weather. P. M. At 1 Fired a Salute of 21 Guns in commemoration of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's Birth day At 12 do. weather.
Tuesday 13th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Mod: and fine W ² At noon do. weather P. M. the London Transport sailed for England At 12 do. weather.
Wednesday 14th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Light breeze & fine At noon do. weather P. M. the Julia arrived & anchored. At 12 do. weather.
Thursday 15th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Moderate & fine At noon do — do — P. M. do — do — At 12 do — do —
Friday 16th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Light airs and fine. At noon do. weather P. M. the Julia sailed also the St. Helena Schooner At 12 Mod: and Cloudy.
Saturday 17th	S.P.E.	A.M.	A. M. Fresh breeze & squally with rain at times. At noon do weather. P. M. An English Merchant Ship passed to Leeward. At 12 do. weather.
		A.M.	A. M. Fresh breeze & squally At noon do. weather P. M. at 6. 10, observed the Batteries fire a gun which was answered at the Alarm Hill and at Ladder Hill, the latter hoisting two lights and burning a blue light observed a Brig to Leeward supposed to be the Griffon At 12. Squally with rain at times

Newcastle moored off James's Town St. Helena