

His Majesty's Ship Newcastle - Saturday 7th September 1816

Week days	Wind	Place of the ship at noon	Remarks & Occurrences	Signals
				1 st	2 ^d	3 ^d	By what ship	To what ship
Saturday 7 th P.E.			A. M. Light breeze & cloudy The Pollon Merchant Ship arrived from Bengal with Provisions for the Island At noon do. weather P. M. do do At 12 Light breeze & fine.
Sunday 8 th P.E.			A. M. Mod. breeze & fine The Mary Ann Merchant Ship from Bengal arrived & anchored off Lemon Valley The Cornwallis sailed for England At noon do. weather - P. M. do do The Griffon sailed - At 12 do. weather:
Monday 9 th P.E.			A. M. Mod. and fine weather At noon do. weather P. M. do do At 12 do do
Tuesday 10 th P.E.			A. M. Mod. breeze & cloudy At noon Mod. & fine P. M. do do At 12 Fresh breeze & cloudy
Wednesday 11 th P.E.			A. M. Mod. breeze & cloudy At noon do. weather - The Mary Ann Merchant Ship sailed for England - At 12 Mod. breeze -
Thursday 12 th P.E.			A. M. Fresh breeze & cloudy At noon do. weather P. M. do do At 12 do. Mod. & Rainy -
Friday 13 th P.E.			A. M. Mod. & Rainy weather The Elanzer Merchant Ship arrived from Bombay - At noon do. weather P. M. do do At 12 do do
Saturday 14 th P.E.			A. M. Mod. and cloudy weather At noon do. weather P. M. the Pollon & Elanzer Merchantmen sailed for England At 12 Moderate & fine

Newcastle moored off James' Town St Helena