ROOM 241 COURT HOUSE, 2ND FLOOR WEST SIDE.

Baltimore, June 2, 1904.

W. Cabell Bruce, Beq.,

City Solicitor.

My dear Sir:-

1574

Grand Secretary of Independent Order of Odd Fellows, stating his Order being a Fraternal organisation, it is exempt from taxation and it must have been an oversight on our part to have assessed their property $540.00 benefits for the Extension, Opening and Widening of Hopkins Place.

1575

character from churches and religious organizations, so will you kindly inform this Commission whether they are exempt under the law from assessment of benefits or not, as we have no desire to place benefits upon them if such is the case.

I an,

Yours very truly,
