Dear Sir:-

I hand you herewith a copy of a letter this day received from Gen. Hood of the United Rwys. Co. Will you kindly advise if I may grant his request as set forth in his letter.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) B. T. Fendall,

Re. extension of Preston St. tracks. 28. City Engineer.

File No. 4992.

Baltimore, June 28, 1906.

B. T. Fendall, Esq.,

City Engineer.

Dear Sir:-

As verbally explained to you this date, this company would like to extend its Preston street tracks, now terminating a little east of the car-barn at Potomac Street, 1-1/2 blocks to Loney's lane at the eastern city limit. The car-barn has been outgrown
