

File No. 7937 Continued.

OPINION.

clusions reached by Mr. Ritchie, but this statement must be taken as limited to contracts containing the same provisions with respect to the matter of time as the specifications for High Level Interceptor Section No. 2.

6090

While I am satisfied as I have indicated that the conclusions reached by Mr. Ritchie are correct, it seems to me that as a matter of prudence the Commission should refrain as far as possible from making any delays in the work of contractors the subjects of express agreements for extensions.

Truly yours,

(Signed) W. Cabell Bruce,
City Solicitor.
