OPINION.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Baltimore, March 22nd, 1909.

J. Spencer Clarke, Esq.,
Collector of Water Rents and Licenses.

Dear Sir:-

7295

I reply as follows to your letter of March 17th in reference to the application of D. Cohen for a refund of a proportionate part of the license fee of Fifty Dollars paid January 30th for the year 1909. I can find no provision in the law authorizing you to grant the refund requested, and would therefore advise you not to do so as it would be a very bad precedent and give you no end of trouble.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Edgar Allan Poe,
City Solicitor.
