In the matter of fines, none of these people use this alley directly, the alley being used by garbage carts and other vehicles going to the rear of these lots to serve the abutting property owners; hence, I assume that we could not impose any fine on the property owners.

Am I right in my conclusions with regard to assessing these property owners with the cost of putting the crossing over the sidewalk on Maryland Avenue in proper shape, for using the same with carts and other vehicles?

Very truly yours,

(Signed) B. T. Fendall,

City Engineer.
