CORRESPONDENCE.

SEWERAGE COMMISSION
OF THE CITY OF BALTIMORE
AMERICAN BUILDING.

Baltimore, January 25th, 1911.

Hon. Edgar Allan Poe,
City Solicitor.

Dear Sir:-

In re correspondence between P. Flanigan and Sons, the Chief Engineer of the Commission and the writer, on the subject of obtaining information as to private drains claimed to be owned by P. Flanigan and Sons, and the advisability of taking them over in case they meet the requirements of the Commission, handed you in person by me today, I beg to say that because of the importance of the question, it has been made a special order of business to be considered at a special meeting, at which you will be invited to be present, and the correspondence was handed to you in order that you might familiarize yourself with the subject beforehand.

Yours truly,

(Signed) W. D. Platt,

Chairman, Pro tem.
