Replying to your favor of the 26th ultimo, asking me to advise you whether you can withhold from Edward Alcott certain money which will be due him, and which said Alcott owes to George F. Patterson, I herewith enclose you copy of a report to myself from Mr. Wright, with reference thereto, and in which report I concur.

I return Mr. Patterson's letter, as requested.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Edgar Allan Poe,
City Solicitor.

On North Charles Street there is a garage which has had attached to its front four electric lamps. They are all four within the two foot limit. That is to say, they do not extend beyond the building line more than seventeen inches. The sidewalk which fronts the said building lies on quite
