OPINION.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Baltimore, August 12, 1910.

B. T. Fendall, Esq.,
City Engineer.

Dear Sir:-

9387

I reply as follows to your favor of the 10th, relative to the paving with cobble stone part of Federal street from Milton avenue to Luzerne street.

It seems to me that the work which you outline can properly be classed as repair work upon the street and is, therefore, not prohibited by the "Anti-cobble stone Ordinance".

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Edgar Allan Poe.

City Solicitor.

About a week ago 150 water melons were condemned by inspector of the Health Department and thrown out from the cellar of 1132 Hollins Street.

As the removal of this stuff is quite a tax and expense to this Department, I would respectfully request an opinion as to how to meet
