OPINION.

Company. The identity of the original corporation would not be affected thereby and all its rights and obligations would certainly remain unimpaired.

Very truly yours,

AMERICAN BUILDING.

Baltimore, September 17, 1910.

Mr. S. H. Lauchheimer,
Acting City Solicitor.

Dear Sir:-

I enclose herewith a letter received from the United Engineering & Construction Co., advising that they propose to change their corporate name to "The Whiting-Middleton Construction Company".

Will you kindly inform me if it will be necessary to make any change in the present contract we have with these people? Please return their letter with your reply.

Yours truly,

(Signed) Calvin W. Hendrick.

Chief Engineer.
