CORRESPONDENCE

THE ENOCH PRATT FREE LIBRARY
OF BALTIMORE CITY.

Baltimore, December 8, 1910.

Mr. Edgar Allan Poe,
City Solicitor,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir:-

9801

I enclose herewith a letter from Archer & Allen, architects, with reference to a matter concerning the erection of our Branch Library #15 on a lot given for library purposes on the corner of Gorsuch & Taylor Aves., the title to which lot has been placed in the Mayor and City Council.

In view of the circumstances detailed in the architect's letter, will you kindly let us know whether the legal obligation to bear the expense of erecting such wall is on the owner of the lot to the west of us, or whether that expense must be met by the Library Trustees.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Bernard C. Steiner.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

Baltimore, December 12, 1910.

Hon. Edgar Allan Poe, Esq.,
City Solicitor.

Dear Sir:-

I reply to your favor of the 9th instant, relating to the improvements which are to be erected on the lot of ground at the corner of Gorsuch avenue and Taylor street, for the use of the Enoch Pratt Free Library. From the letter of Messrs. Archer & Allen, Architects, to Dr. Bernard C. Steiner, Librarian, I infer that the lot of ground above mentioned, and the adjoining
