

File No. 12432 Continued.

Orphans' Court.

Reference to the copy of the will of John Shotwell Townsend discloses the fact that Mrs. Townsend holds the securities as life-tenant with an unqualified power of sale.

The securities in question, however, were transferred to Mrs. Townsend under an order of the Orphans' Court. It is possible the Court has assumed jurisdiction of the fund under Section 10 of Article 93 of the Code.

Under these circumstances the City Register should not honor any transfer not authorized by order of that Court.

Very truly yours,

File No. 12449

Baltimore, February 17, 1911.

Mr. A. S. Goldsborough
 Mayor's Secretary

Dear Sir:

I herewith return the letter of the City Engineer, dated February 9th, and the letter of the Warren Brothers Company to His Honor, the Mayor, dated February 7th, in reference to the advisability of making changes in paving specifications.

The questions involved are practical ones and present no legal difficulties. If it is desired to amend the present paving specifications and the proposed amendments are in conflict with any ordinances, the difficulty, of course, could be obviated by amending the ordinances.

Very truly yours,
 (Signed) Edgar Allan Poe.
 City Solicitor.
