In view of the foregoing, it will be necessary to charge a 10% tax on admission to all tickets to the North-South All Star Football Game which are sold to the people at the price of One Dollar ($1.00) or Two Dollars ($2.00). There is a provision in the Act that tickets below the price of forty-one cents (.41) shall be tax exempt, but as the correspondence before me indicates that the tickets will be sold at the price of One Dollar ($1.00) and Two Dollars ($2.00) each, this particular Section is not applicable to the present case.

Very truly yours,

R. E. Lee Marshall, Esq.
City Solicitor.

Dear Mr. Marshall:

I have investigated the question raised in your memorandum of October 7, 1932, with regard to "whether it is compulsory under the law to receive United States prisoners in the City Jail."

I can answer this question with the categorical expression "No". I feel it only proper to say, however, the general provisions of the law with regard to the Baltimore City Jail will be found in the Charter of 1927, being Section 6, Sub-section 12, found on page 18, where it is stated that the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall have power to "own, regulate and control the jail of Baltimore City". The various sections referring to the visitors of the Jail will be found on pages 161 to 165 of the City Charter and immediately precede the provisions as to the warden of the Jail found on pages 163 to 165. These are sections numbered 116 to 138, inclusive.
