

Robert Stewart
of Robert Oakes } appeal

The counsel for the appellants alleges that the judgment rendered in the court below ought to be reversed on two grounds. 1st That the court of Oyer & Terminer, and Just Delivery for Baltimore County, in which the said judgment was rendered have no jurisdiction in cases of Petition for freedom, and consequently that this judgment is altogether erroneous and void.

2<sup>dly</sup> That the facts in the case do not warrant the interpretation given by the court of the act of assembly of Virginia, which is contained in the transcript of the record. I Prorogue for app<sup>t</sup>
