

To the Honorable William Hilly Esquire Chancellor of Maryland William Warfield trustee for the sale of of the property of Richard Tucker, begs leave to report: That your trustee in pursuance of the directions contained in the decree, in this case, filed his bond with security in this court for the performance of the trust reposed in him by the said Decree, and proceeded to give notice by advertisement inserted in the Maryland Gazette, and by advertisements stuck up at public places, of the time, place, manner, and terms of sale, and pursuant thereto, on the second day of December Eight-teen hundred and Eleven, did attend at the place specified in the said advertisement Your trustee further reports, that a part of the property mentioned in the proceedings consisting of the following Negroes to wit, one negro woman Jenny, one negro boy named John, and one negro boy named Horace, was sold to James Anderson (he being the highest bidder) for the sum of five hundred and fifteen dollars & fifty cents
