

only, the said child being almost in the same moment taken from her embrace by some of the friends of the said Testamentary Guardian.

That she had reason to believe, and ~~was~~ <sup>was</sup> therefore dearly as she believeth, that the mind of her said daughter has been poisoned, with representations of the prejudice, and impressions to her disadvantage & dishonestly inculcated, and impressed in her infant feelings. That the said Testamentary Guardian of her said daughter, has neither wife or daughter himself, and for his advanced age, and other causes, is not a suitable person to superintend the Education of his said ward, being now, from the effects of old age and infirmities, physical, and mental, incapable of transacting any kind of business. And Your Petitioner further charges, that though her said daughter Virginia is now between twelve and thirteen years of age, <sup>she</sup> has now been placed in any Seminary of learning, or enjoys the advantages of private instruction, notwithstanding her father the said Isaac Williams died worth a considerable Estate, and though her Grand
