Complainants additional Special interrogatory to Francis Brashears.

1st. State particularly and fully, your opinion of the habit and character for truth of William Watkins the Defendant, and how he said Watkins compares in this respect with that of the neighbors generally — and whether you think him an intemperate man