

In Baltimore County Orphans' Court: In the matter of the further petition of Marcy Fountain against Amanda a Negro Girl, Slave for a Term of years, filed on the 19th of September 1848: The said petition having been read and considered, it is the opinion of the Court that no sufficient grounds have been shown to call for any further action by this Court in the premises: Whereupon it is by the Court on this 20th day of September, in the year 1848, Ordered and Decreed that the said petition be dismissed -

Charles Howard.
