Dies In Mother's Arms Begging Forgiveness

(Continued on page 2)

champion, went on the payroll

of the International Boxing Com-

Police seek

in murders

Disappear after shooting, stabbing

Miss Ruth Davis, wounded.

filted lover, shot the women after Miss Davis refused to admit him into her apartment.

Joe's children face

loss of trust fund

world's heavyweight boxing $15,000 a year.

F-L-A-S-H!

reparations have been undervay for several days, 25,000 workers are out. Agreements stry of 562 maintenance men, keep the plants in shape for reement is reached. ers are out at the ARMCO Steel plant on Chase St.

DR. TURNER MAY SEE NO VISITORS

mitted to see Dr. John P. Turner

four city narcotics squad offic ers testified last week that Dr. RELATIVES SAID she first Turner gave them prescriptions tried suicide about two years ago for narcotics when they visited a bottle of his office posing as dope addicts.

(Continued on Page 2)

of some of his other enter-ble today.

years, 1946-49.

PREPARING FOR INTEGRATION -Among those attending the second workshop on school integration presented by the Howard University Summer School are, from left, Mrs. Helen M.

Johnson, principal, Four Corners Elementary School, Montgomery County; Mrs. Julia Fickling, counselor, Cardozo High School; and Mrs. Emma Louise Halliday, Four Corners Elementary. (See story Page 19)

New principal

Board appoints three vice principals

One new principal and three ice principals were named by Board of School Commissioners at its regular meeting, Thursday afternoon.

tion becomes effective Sept. at the salary of $8,600.

Mrs. Parrott succeeds John Sept. 1, 1955.

The vice principals include board of directors adopted Mrs. Ethel Payne, at Booker T. resolution pledging all Washington; Robert Diggs, Dunprises he would be in real trou- bar High School annex; and Charles Brown, Dunbar High [100 In hearings before the U.S. School.

Tax Court, this week, the gov-MRS. PAYNE, whose position ernment says Joe owes $463,041 will go into effect Sept. 1 with in additional income taxes and the salary of $6,510, has served CHIMMA $187,781 in interest for three as coordinator at Dunbar High

Mr. Diggs was supervisor of To get this money, Uncle Sam To get this money, Uncle Sam geography and science at Dunis trying to attach two trust bar, while Mr. Brown was spefunds totaling $65,668, established cial assistant at the school. Both in the Joe Louis successful years appointments take effect July 1. ed for questioning in connection of 1947 and 1949 for his children, William Lockwood, now placewith two separate slayings over Jacquelyn and Joe Louis Jr. the weekend countinues in the Both children are in the custo- leave, has been named special weeks of summer classes at tion, but decided against invit-

An alarm for a 30-year-old man went out Friday after Wife, Margaret Gibson of the Spaulding.

An alarm for a 30-year-old man went out Friday after Spaulding.

Margaret Gibson of the Spaulding.

An alarm for a 30-year-old man went out Friday after Spaulding.

Margaret Gibson of the Spaulding.

An alarm for a 30-year-old margaret Gibson of the Spaulding.

Margaret Gibson of the Spaulding. 1500 block Aisquith St., was The children's mother is fight- as teacher-in-charge of School summer sessions. shot and killed and her niece, img to keep the Federal govern- No. 154 to Feb. 1, 1956.

ment from taking the two trust THE ACCEPTANCE of the The suspect, described as a funds created for the children (Continued on Page 21)

Mayor hasn't acted ON SATURDAY a search was on zoning ordinance launched for the person responsible for the fatal stabbing of Mayor D'Alesandro, at press a 58-year-old man in an Eastside time, had taken no action upon the ordinance which would pro-tall, and weighs 143 pounds.

Y branch plans new IIm crow program

Cruises prevent integration of activities, officials say gram planned by the North Bal- tegrated programs. Mrs. Lillian Parrott, now timore branch YMCA for youths AFRO Thursday.

The new segregated program CHICAGO—Joe Louis, former mission at the reputed salary of Cotton who will retire as of was initiated only seven weeks after the city-wide YMCA

First integrated classes in session

ment counselor on sabbatical pupils and 52 teachers began six sidered the matter of integra-

The classes are being held at Frederick Douglass High School, Gwynns Falls Pkwy., resignations of Juanita Bockford, and Pulaski St.; Eastern High teacher at School No. 450, Eliz- School, 33rd St. and Loch Ravabeth Thompson, teacher at en Rd., and Clifton Park High School No. 450 and Gloria School, Harford Rd., near 25th Tucker, teacher at School No. St.

Regular academic and con (Continued on Page 2)

An eight-week summer pro- branches to work toward in- for 20 years.

over a year ago in Pittsburgh job.

THE ACTION of the city-wide board of directors on May 10 Apples on the corner was interpreted as meaning that all future programs initiated by

. . . .

MR. VAN DEUSEN said a committee of seven persons, headed by Charles Scott, drew up the plans for the new pro-Nearly 5.100 colored and white gram. The group, he stated, con-

> Deusen, the principle obstacles livelihood. to integration of the summer program are the two cruises which are planned as a part of the activities. These he re-

(Continued on page 2) There's a Lucky Photo in this issue of the AFRO. If your head newspaper. is encircled in the eval, you can collect $5. Look for it; it may be you!

up in the clouds New 135-pound king jubilant a 2-1 margin in ballots.

FOR WALLACE, the bout with important of my life.

I'd do my best.

(Continued on page 2)

after victory over Carter By SAM LACY

AFRO Sports Editor hours after being declared the their bruising 15-round title battle at Boston Garden, the new the night before, a check of ofworld lightweight champion, Wal- ficial scorecards on his fight with lace (Bud) Smith, was "so hap- Carter had shown Smith the ay" he was "still walking

• Little David discarded his slingshot...

By BIDDY WOOD (Seventh in a series of articles)

Everytime David Harris Jr. before the bout, I lived a long cenies. sees a bird moving in the sky or time waiting for last night's A highlight of the lengthy trial eyes to the great beyond and win and I didn't say that pause in deep and humble grati- wouldn't. All I said was that means shared by his wife. Bette. Fate was kind to David. The or by his mother, Mrs. Willa man whose leadership he chose Smith. to follow-Paul L. Benjamin, 21, "It's such a wonderful feelthe "Black Stocking Bandit"- ing," declared the younger womwas arrested and sent to prison an, "I just can't explain It. But LITTLE DAVID was very between 13 and 17 years old will May 10, during a meeting in the solemn as he watched Paul and not be open to colored boys, Central branch, the city-wide four other of his youthful friends

Court, earlier this tainty, this attitude was by no for human nature."

Council of YMCAs, which met him to the test on his first big

(Continued on page 2)

In 1929 the panic was on and nobody realized what had an integrated basis, thus permit- struck the country. Men high in the financial world committed suicide rather than face complete bankruptcy.

Business barometers continued to fall and failures in all types of businesses were a dime a dozen. The government was awe-stricken and the depointing low of only $402.25. pression crossed the ocean to economic castastrophe hit the hope of finding jobs. AFRO subscribers continue

• One gets six years; The 26-year-old Cincinnatian other 18 mos. was talking to the AFRO as the said 11:30 a.m., Thursday. At just a few seconds past 11:30 Two others admit being fooled "winner and new champion" by

"It was the biggest thrill of Baltimore's most active flimmy life. That's about all I can flam ring was believed ended say about it. I thought I had this week, when one man was won but you can never tell about sentenced to six years in the these things. And when it was penitentiary and another drew official that I had won it, I was an 18-month term in the Reso happy I'm still walking in the formatory.

sentence, and Francis Barnes, 41, both of the unit block S the veteran 135 - pounder who Eden St., were convicted by twice had lost and regained Judge John T. Tucker in Criminal Court Wednesday. the crown was "easily the most Stamper was accused of two

The men, George Stamper,

27, who received the longer larcenies, while both men were "As I told the newspapers charged together in two lar-the bloom of a flower in the soil, fight, and I had every intention was testimony about Stamper or feels the firm pavement under of making the best of the oppor- and a man still at large, swindhis feet, he ought to turn his tunity. I didn't say then that I'd ling a working man out of $3,000 game known - the confidence

"I'm so happy my best was JUDGE TUCKER expressed amazement that a thing like this IF SMITH'S words indicated could happen. He added, however: "There is no accounting

The $3,000 take, police reported, was at the expense of Clinton Edmonds, 1800 block E. Lafayette Ave., who testified that he "never gambled a day in his life." Here is the version of the in-

(Continued on page 2)

Burt Van Deusen, executive secretary of the branch, told the AFRO Thursday. Secretary of the branch, told the AFRO Thursday. Secretary of the branch, told the Council of YMCAs, which met the secretary of the branch, told the Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, the city-wide led away to jail. Luckily for David, he turned "chicken," when the gang put to colored boys, board of directors accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, board of directors accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, board of directors accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, board of directors accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met the gang put to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted a declaration from the National Council of YMCAs, which met to colored boys, accepted to colored boys, a and urged all branches to work toward integration as rapidly as Paul, David and a boy toward integration as rapidly as

An S-O-S, is being sent out to blocks not only clean; but beauthe city's civic-minded organiza- tiful. tions and individuals by officials Aid is also being solicited from of the 21st annual AFRO Clean (Continued on Page 15)

Block Campaign. The desperation signal is being flashed for contributions to the Glean Block Prize Fund, Matron gullty youngsters are rewarded at the end of the drive. a modest $2,500, the total collected thus far stands at a disap-

UNLESS THE response from N.C. Mutual well-meaning Baltimoreans is im-America so hard. Men stood on | mediate, the more than 10,000 According to Mr. Van the corners selling apples for a boys and girls expected to sign Mrs. Britania E. Parmes, 40, up this year can look forward former North Carolina Mutual The AFRO withstood the to bleak period when they finish Insurance Company assistant > clean this summer. to grow because they follow cis Mackay is making special ap- in prison. the times in their favorite peals to the hundreds of Balti-For home delivery call avowed aim is the betterment of the areas they represent. WHAT BETTER way can this funds

Took money from shock and many avid readers the hot work of keeping their cashier, was led weeping from persued AFRO want ads with blocks, alleys and neighborhoods the courtroom Friday morning after she was sentenced to Clean Block Director M. Fran- serve from one to three years

Mother of a teen-aged son and more neighborhood clubs, whose daughter, Mrs. Parmes pleaded guilty last month to two counts of a six-count indictment charging her with embezzling company be done, she points out, than get- The amount covered in the

ting behind AFRO Clean Block- two counts to which she pleaded

Police started combing the Eden St. area after John Duff Tucker of the 700 block N. Spring St. was slain with a 12-inch butcher knife at a ta N. Spring St The suspect is described as 58the bill which passed the City years old, five feet seven inches Council at its closing session last Rev. R. M. Williams holds out for new parsonage

OF ALL THINGS -- Bus owner's

THE 'BARE' TRUTH

There was plenty of discussion this winter about proper dress for school children when tight blue jeans were hidden from the for school children when tight public eye under heavy coats. Come summer, we discovered this Carr Bus Co., 607 George St., re- cently elevated to District sup- portedly balked at switching resi- formerly residing is listed for AFRO's pay-for-play contest. week that young ladies are wearing shorts to classes at Douglass ceived a two-year suspended sen- erintendent after spending 24 dences with the Rev. Mr. Foy. sale at $11,950. High School—and it is too warm for coats.

JUMPS FOR NO REASON

An 18-year-old girl jumped from a second story bedroom window of her home in the 1200 block N. Eden St., Monday, then pending on Carr's conviction of congregation of Asbury had puraccustomed. calmly walked away from the scene with nothing more than a being the father of a love baby chased a swanky parsonage for A special committee was ap-

Two doctors reported that they could find no injuries.

doctors reported that they could find no injuries.

him since she was 15 years old. When questioned by Northeastern District police, the teen Sentence was imposed by Judge is located at 3801 South Dakota

The residence, estimated to be out season of $30,000, ference was held at Hamline is located at 3801 South Dakota

term suspended

(Continued on Page 2)

tion, Wednesday.

pressed his displeasure at the ington District Methodists for the ed in the Crestwood-Rock Creek plans now. trict superintendent.

tence in the House of Corrections with the pulpit of Asbury He is reported to have remarked Its sale will provide the down that he did not like the neigh.

A motion for a new trial is of the Rev. Mr. Williams, the to which he had been

Miss Cordelia Butler was taken to Johns Hopkins Hospital born to a 23-year-old girl who in a cab by her mother where she was examined then released. Said she had been friendly with michigan Park area. The residence, estimated to be ed session of the District con-

WASHINGTON op Edgar Love decided to switch the special committee, an attor-A new parsonage is being pur- the assignments of the Rev. Mr. ney, unanimous approval was chased for the Rev. Robert M. Williams and the Rev. James given for the purchase of a par-Williams by the Methodists of Foy. sonage at 1710 Allison St., NW, picnic or a fishing party on the costume worn by a man, womthe Washington District after the The Rev. Mr. Foy resided in for the Rev. Mr. Williams.

residence provided for the Dis- District superintendent at 2211 Park area, is estimated to cost First St., NW.

borhood and wanted a place THE REV. MR. Foy, who has and fish story.

(Continued on Page 2)

you $25 to play July 4

Going on a family outing, a scription of the best outing

readers three prizes:

$25 cash for the best picture in before the deadline. and picnic story.

former Asbury minister ex- a home provided by the Wash- The parsonage, which is locat- If so, you will be making your Make a pictorial record of the family outing, picnic or fishing You might as well make that trip, and then send the pictures more AFRO. The Baltimore AFRO offers its The contest will close July 10, so get your pictures and stories

Address all communications to $25 cash for the best picture AFRO Outing Contest Editor, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore 3, $25 for the picture and de- Md.

FAMOUS NAMES ager replied: "I had no real reason to jump. I just don't know Herman M. Moser who found Ave., SE. why I did it."

Carr guilty on June 15.

CONTEST - Page 31