They have won pre-season games vs. Eagles, Steelers best season

New players are McMillian, Morgan's Charlie Robinson

By SAM LACY WAYNESBORO, Pa. - The best season he has enjoyed in seven years of professional football is in store for Buddy Young, if the word of his Baltimore Colt teammates means anything. The chunky halfback speedster from Chicago was running warmup signals here Saturday night, preparing for an intra-squad game, when Zollie Toth volunteered a tribute. Toth, a native of Baton Rouge,

La., and a star at Louisiana State University before entering the play-for-pay ranks, is not the most talkative individual one is likely to encounter on the sports pays to listen. With Toth, one sentence is a lecture; two sentences comprise a speech.

"I HAVE NEVER seen Buddy so alive," he declared as he shifted a football from one hand File court suit to the other while waiting to replace his stand-m, John Huzvar, in the pre-game drill.

wanted to know, that Toth is inbecause Young is his roommate court action this week to prevent | Catherine would have had to this year?

it. Buddy and I have played required loyalty oath pledge. together for years, and we've

Trial Sept. 20 for bank band

Jury brings new charges against 3

As FBI agents continued their tenant lease in full effect. search or his alleged Mutt and Jeff accomplices, Clarence (Duke) M c G a n n learned man, said the suit challenges t tional charges in the $124,638 basis. Andrews Air Force Base bank

St., NYC, pleaded not guilty Constitution. Wednesday to three charges added charges of robbery on channels of the People's Court. Federal property and interstate

(Continued on Page 2)

NOTICE Advertising Department of the

AFRO-AMERICAN WILL BE CLOSED LABOR DAY

MONDAY, SEPT. 6th

Evans Fernandis Sr., Tuesday.

the Circuit Court.

$11.947.79.

The appointment was made by -0000-time, died on August 13, 1952.

and household effects.

THE TRUST FUND, which Mr.

Many Mixed Classes As Schools Open Parents and

BUDDY YOUNG Maybe this is his year.

So, when he starts speaking on subject, it more often that not lenants retuse to be evicted to buck rule of Housing Authority clined to be a little rosey-eyed The Arthur Dupree family took "My reeming with Buddy had being evicted from a housing travel 10 blocks to the Benjabsolutely nothing to do with project for refusal to sign the

The eviction deadline was cently suffered a mental breakdown is confined at Crownsville State Hospital, but her husband and their four children remain nearest their homes. in the apartment at 221 N. Dallas Ct., Douglass Homes.

Mr. Dupree filed a bill of complaint in Circuit Court on Mon- from school, has been solved. day, asking an injunction to prevent the Housing Authority from evicting him, and to declare his appointed counsel, John Martin evition notice, the case will be the most wonderful thing that taken through the regular has happened in Baltimore.

-000-HIS ATTORNEY, Harold Buch Wednesday that he will go on legal right of the Housing Au- her back again.

The loyalty pledge is required (Continued on Page 2)

WASHINGTON The District commissioners on this week, some 108 of its 1,075 men being colored.

The first step calls for the ments for the Tuesday Sep- overstaffed all-colored compatember 7th issue before 5:30 nies into understaffed formerly p.m.. Friday, September 3rd. all-white companies, according to Chief Millard H. Sutton.

James A. B. Callis, 2113 Druid 1952, he directed the sale of prop- son Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Fernandis Sr., who worked St., 533 Bloom St., 1912 and 1914 Jenkins, Katie Bell and William

In addition, he will receive ter.

He left ceal estate valued at $2,000 per year for life from the Payments out of the estate for $25,221.50 and cash amounting trust. In the event his wife, Mrs. funeral, taxes, property repairs, to $12,091.64 in addition to a Katie Fernandis, survives him, commissions and other costs of as a barber at Johns Hopkins Druid Hill Ave., and 1708 and Griffin, nieces and nephew; and Callis named trustee of $44,000 Fernandis estate

Mr. Callis, along with Evans least 10 years following his pital and YMCA.

diamond ring valued at $250 | she will receive one-third of the administration

In a will drawn on April 2, will go in equal shares to Madi- records.

Fernandis Jr., son and principal death. During this time they are heir of Mr. Fernandis, had serv- not to be sold or transferred by ed as administrator of the estate. the son or anyone acting in his Hospital over a long period of 1712 Division St.

pupils hail integration

680 enrolled in 23 schools 2 TEACHERS AT SCHOOL 72 All ready for opening lues.

"Now my child can safely go to school alone."

This was the reaction of Mrs. Thelma Taylor, 805 E. 22nd St., this week, as she registered her five-year - old daughter, Catherine, in kindergarten at the Oliver Cromwell School No. 74, 22nd St. and Homewood Ave. just across the street from her min Banneker School No. 113, Federal St., and Greenmount

segregation ruling of last June youngsters to attend schools

lem of their children crossing Classes here busy thoroughfares to get to and

-000-MRS. TAYLOR heaved a sigh of relief as she said, "If it hadn't School 113 every day and bring fall term on Tuesday morning.

Housing officials said that ing in line to be registered, Mrs.

"If the parents will leave the children alone everything will work out fine."

pal of the school, looked up from her desk, overflowing with pa- is known that many more will pers, long enough to comment "Registration is going along be even larger when the school here smooth as clockwork."

-000-FOR JEAN and John Burton. Monday ordered all segregation at the Columbus School No. 99, include:

1805 N. Broadway, who enrolled which will have mixed classes admitted to the school will be completely remodeled top to bot- rectly to the Archbishop after a is under police guard. in the Washington Fire Depart- North Ave. and Washington St. ment ended as of Wednesday of this week, integration permit them to attend a school only two blocks from their home.

Both had previously attended Please place all advertise- transfer of 18 men from the five the Elementary School No. 135 Chase and McDonogh which is 12 blocks away. Jean, 8,

(Continued on Page 15)

The will also provided for im

$500 to Mrs. E. B. Harkins, a sis-

THE WILL directed that six mediate cash gifts of $500 to the

THE SON will, however, re- Chatmon, Roberta Smith, Sarah other properties be held for at church and $250 each to the hos-

$579,000 reconstruction job

Douglass High School pupils, more apparent Tuesday.

Carey and Baker Sts., will be

"When this building is com-president of the University of building at Howard and Centre for the fall term.

to be completed next year

By JESSE H. WALKER

REGISTERING AT EASTERN HIGH-Emily Price, 15, 1715 E. Preston, and Jean Rogers, 16, 716 Gorsuch Ave., discuss their courses with Mrs. A. Marterite Zouk, principal at Eastern High School, 33rd

St. and Loch Raven. Both commercial students, Emily is in the 11th grade while Jean is in the 12th grade. All public schools open Sept. 7.

Statement awaited

Walter Jones, East Baltimore

from Archbishop

Archbishop Francis Keough of behalf of his 11-year-old daugh-

-000-that the school "has always been.

white" and there has been no

(Continued on Page 14)

Losses, gains seen in new Douglass Hi

List of schools now integrated Approximately 600 classes been for this integration, I would 24 public schools will be mixed have had to take Catherine to when public schools open for the on entering their new building when a $579,000 renovation This will mark the first time and it would have been impos- schools without regard to on Gwynns Falls Parkway on is completed next year on the trial September 20, facing addi- thority to evict the family on this "I have a small baby at home Baltimore pupils will enroll in It contends that such action is sible for me to get a baby sitter race or color. The desegregation Tuesday will find that they have new building their gains may to St. Cecilia's School, Windsor a violation of the Maryland De- every morning and afternoon." ruling by the city School Board, both lost and gained in making claration of Rights and the U.S. Looking at the mixed group order from the U.S. Supreme What they have lost in the of parents and youngsters wait-ing in line to be registered Mrs. Court in May stating that segre-move from the old Douglass, at Reckling, "we shall have a su-> maintaining segregation, however, pending further action by

The total number of integrated open to all Miss Elizabeth Storm, princi- schools cited here is an estimate, register and that this figure will term actually begins.

> -000-Maryland in College Park, said Streets and when it opens its THE 15 elementary schools this week that colored students doors on Tuesday will have been THE MATTER was taken

James McHenry School No. 10, Hollins St. and Schroeder, 1; Sir Robert Eden School No. 20, Eden and Federal Sts., 95; plied," Dr. Elland told School No. 27, Fayette and Ches- they may stay there."

26th and St. Paul Sts., 5. School No. 60, Gwynns, Falls and Pulaski St., 80. Oliver Cromwell School No. 74,

22nd St. and Homewood Ave., William Paca School No. 83, (Continued on Page 15)

First woman made Hill Ave., was appointed as trus- erties at 812 George St., 2019 Provident Hospital and the Druid Brunt St. and 2105 and 1905 Di- Hill Avenue Branch YMCA.

Post Office on Sept. 1. She is elect as 42. assigned to the main office.

at a cost of $600,000. dormitories on the campus. The building at Howard and "I don't know if any have ap- Centre Streets is definitely a better building than the one was Commodore John Rodgers AFRO. But as far as I know The 45-year-old new university head held his first press confer- THE NEW Douglass building ence on Wednesday at which is actually only three years (Continued on Page 14)

News Summary of

MARRIAGES

moted as a regular clerk in the He gave the age of his bride.

Mrs. Brooks was first made a cants from other cities. OTHER BEQUESTS included substitute postal clerk during the The latter permits went to cash gifts to relatives including war. Her husband, Cephas, is al- Willie Tolliver Jr., 26, and Mrs. Julia H. Johnson, 30, divorced, both ry, 47, and Miss Luvenia Petty, 4 of Hackensack, N.J.; Wesley H. both of Hackensack, N.J. $200 each to Mesdames Mable so a postal employee.

which include 1544 N. Stricker Fernandis, Lillian Monk, Mary $200 RFWAR

The AFRO-AMERICAN Newespapers offers $200 in reward in connection with the August 20th criminal assault on a 32-year-old woman residing in the 700 block N. Fulton Ave. One hundred dollars in cash will go to the person who supplies information leading to the arrest of the guilty person and, trust funds, and the two-thirds $10,332.29, according to court convict him.

(Continued on Page 14)

20, 2537 Calverton Heights Ave.; L., 22; Martha L., 22, 879 W. Fay-SIMS-RAGLAND - Collis, 64, wid

(Continued on Page 2)

buildings

4 tenants hurt, two are critical TWO LEAP OUT WINDOW

Brother-in-law saves relatives

Rescued by a brother-in-law who lives next door, the Hansen Watson family, newcomers to Baltimore, were lucky survivors of the disastrous fire which struck a W. Fayette St. rooming house early Friday morning.

Seven families of about 12 persons fled the flames, but four tenants are hospitalized, two in critical condition.

Of the four tenants hurts, two suffered leg injuries by jumping out of a second story window of the one-entrance three-building rooming house at 622-26 W. Fayette St. THE VICTIMS ARE:

HAROLD TILLMAN, 34, and his wife, LILLIAN, 31, who were carried out of the house by firemen; in critical condition at University Hospital suffering third-degree burns of the body: GEORGE BRINKLEY, 45 right hip and leg injuries cause by his jump from a secon

No word yet on who also leaped out of the window, 1st degree burns of the right arm and injuries of both

Also cut by broken glass was Lt. CHARLES LAUGHTON, 1 fireman of No. 2 Truck Company. He was treated for cuts

(Continued on Page 2)

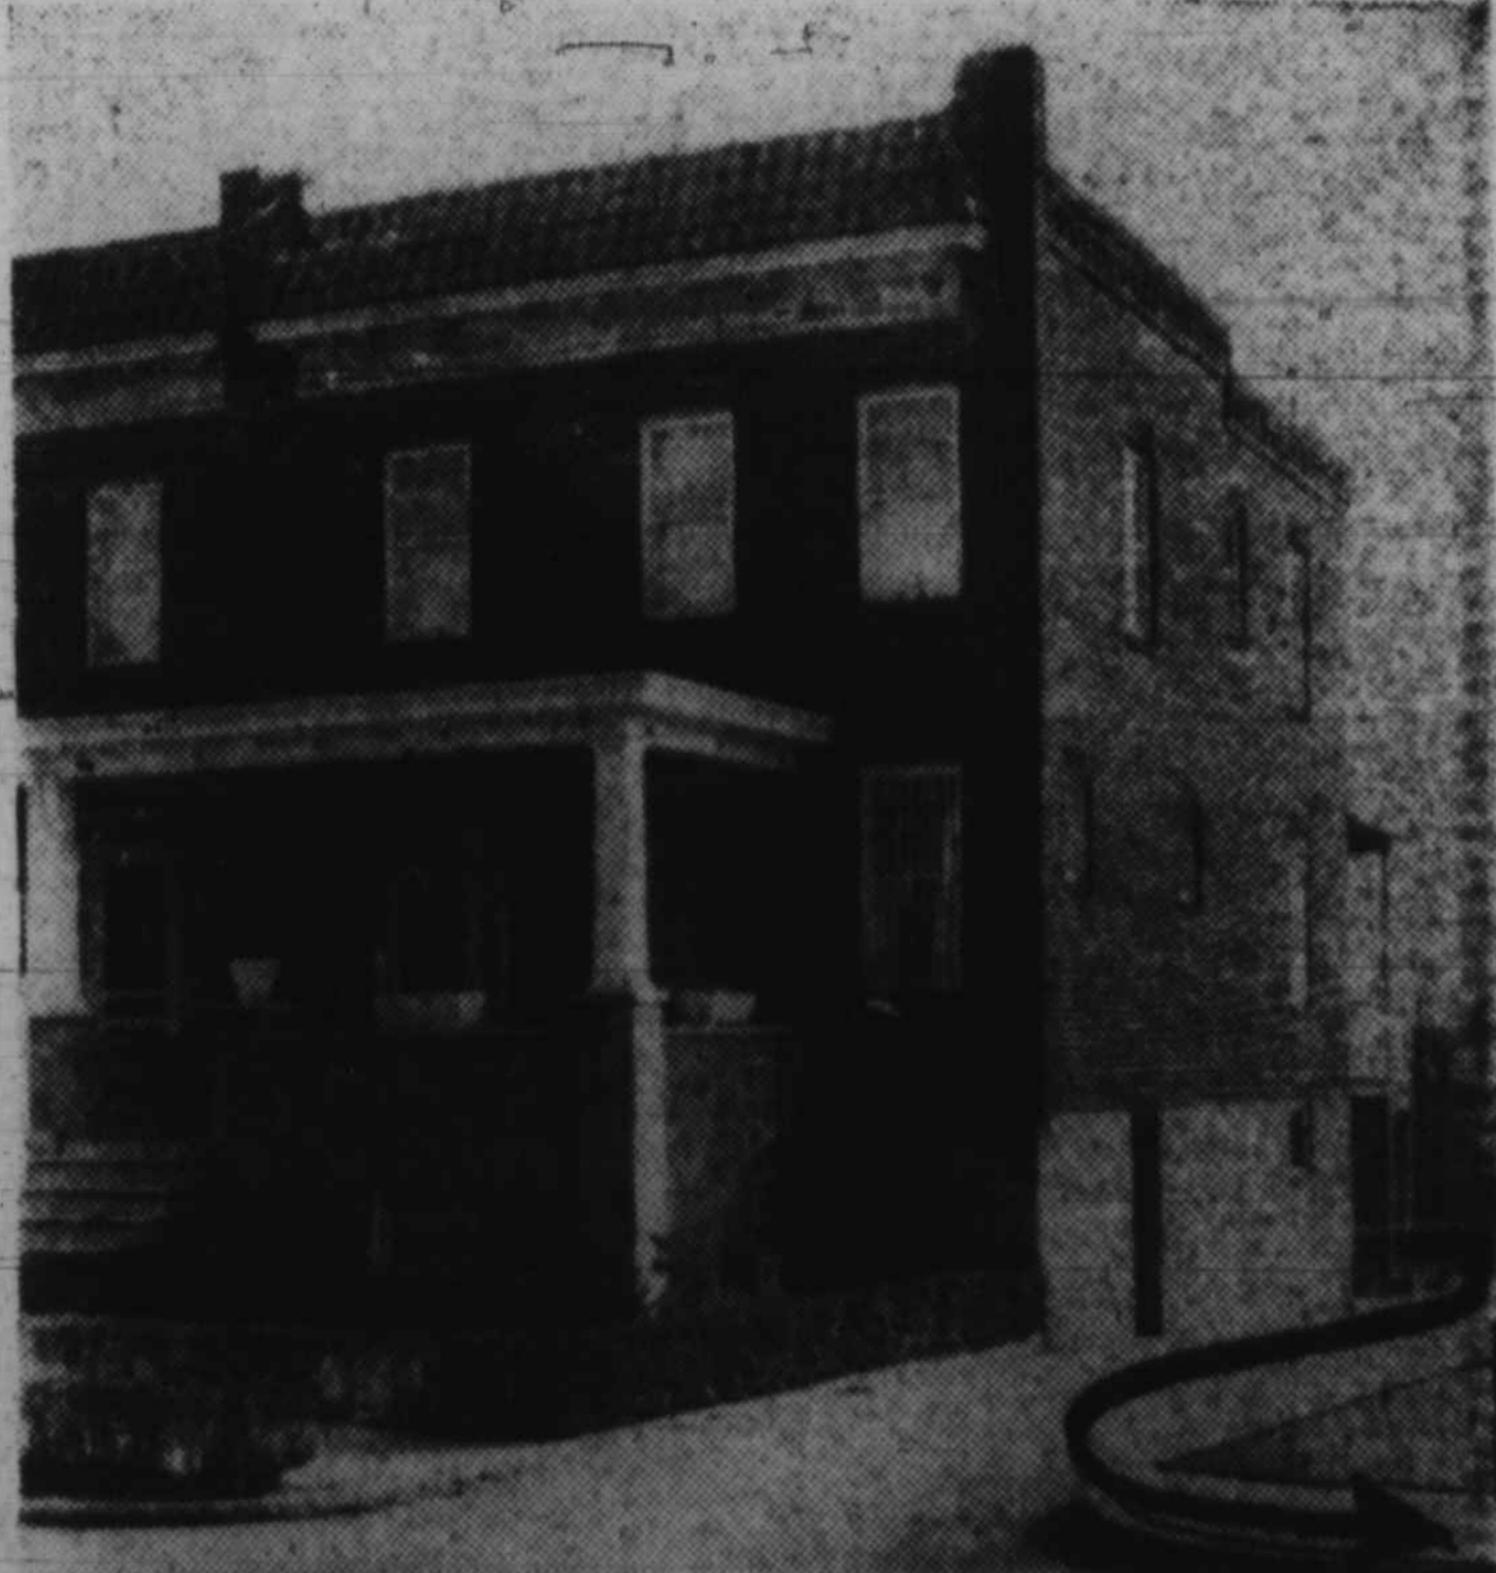

businessman, has appealed to Businessman ter, Joyce, who seeks admission The Jones family now lives at pleted," says Principal Ralph W. 2313 Ashburton St., within three

A West Baltimore businessman perior plant to the one we left." Jones wants to avoid sending his shot one of two white bandits daughter across town to St. who entered his fortress-like THE NEW Douglass is a sen- Francis School which she attend- home at 2003 Whittier Ave. for high school only, located on ed last year when the family Wednesday. 35 acres of spacious grounds, resided at 1023 N. Central Ave. In connection with the attempt.

enclosed in shrubbery, green Mr. Jones addressed a letter to ed holdup at the home of Alivied walls and surrounded by the Archbishop at the Stella Mar- bert Williams two men are berolling green lawns, is Hospice, where he is now stay- ing held for investigation at It was formerly occupied by ing. He has not yet had a reply Northwestern Police Station. the Western High School for although one was requested be- A third man, believed to girls. The latter school is now fore next week when parochial have been shot in the back while Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, new located in the old City College as well as public schools open escaping from the home amid a hail of bullets fired by Mr. Williams, is undergoing treatment for a bullet wound in the chest at Union Memorial Hospital. He

THE ATTEMPTED holdup occurred around noon Wednesday (Continued on Page 2)

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY HERE The Albert Williamses' home, 2003 Whittier Ave. where two bandits entered Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Williams shot and wounded one of the wouldbe robbers who fled by way of the back door, around the side of the house into Whittier Ave., and then to the 2300 block Pulaski St. His route of escape is shown by broken lines.