DICK COVINGTON

On behalf of our announcers and our entire staff, we send warm Brotherhood Week greetings. Eighteen years ago, when we first opened our microphone and Chuck Richards first joined us, we were the first Baltimore sh tion to carry a Negro program. We have maintained through the years and added to it eight years ago with the arrival of "Hot Rod" Hulbert. He's yours to enjoy Monday through Saturday, from 8 P.M. to 12 midnight.

And Chuck is your genial host every Sunday morning. These two fine announcers, plus the rest of our talented group, invite you to make EVERY week Brotherhood Week on WITH.

take this occasion to commend business firms and trade unions who have adhered to the practice of brotherhood in its most significant form -the employment of citizens on merit without regard to their race, religion or color. This represents more than a sound business practice. It shows respect for the liberty and ability of others.
