

Pretty Wedding of Miss Baden and Mr. Howard Pits is social event; Anne Arundel NAACP Branch friends and relatives from out his retirement in 1942. plans special Brotherhood Week program; John of - town. Mrs. Albert Green He, was also a violinist, and R. Adams, 78, buried; Elk Lodge No. 175, Charity and Mrs. John Williams (Glo-Unit No. 1 and Friendly Chorus hold meetings;
Orchid-In-Bloom Club installs officers for the

Among others from out-of
On August 28, 1948, he was be in charge.

On August 28, 1948, he was be in charge.

Elder Willard E. Saunders be in charge.

Elder Willard E. Saunders be in charge.

Fashions and hats will be making early morning phone

Two bridal airs, "At Dayn- more; maternal grandparents and "I Love Thee" by of the bride, Mr. Thomas 8. ALSO Grieg were sung by Mrs. Wil- Baden Sr. paternal grandfather were: liam H. Richardson, accom- of the bride, and the Rev. Mr Harry E. Robinson and Join marriage by her father, was accented at the front with ap- groom; radiant in a traditional long pliqued embroidery and a row And Mrs. A. Jack Thomas of the Friendly Chorus.

long, tight - fitting sleeves, THE BRIDE'S Maternal There were two insets of lace dress was styled along Empire Miss Joan Cole of Baltimore; Hospital, and Richard Brown, Dorothy Harris, formerly of play the Youngsters in a game the waist line to the hem, a ered neckline in the front. and there by lace flowers, a matched her dress. She wore ly design in the lace.

tulle and three of lace decorat- smart in an aquamarine blue in Baltimore from the neckline to the waist. rosebuds. The front of the neckline was A highlight of the reception Church was the gracious tribute paid. The Rt. Rev. Edgar A. Love. The bride also wore a tulle to the bride by members of bishop of the Methodist Churc' veil of fingertip length, which her sorority, Delta Sigma The will be the speaker. The First was caught by an all-pearl tia- ta Sorority, Alpha Gamma Presbyterian Church Choir will ra, and white satin pumps. Her Chapter necklace was a small diamond Forming a circle around her. Music will be furnished She wore small the sorors sang the sorority's the Bates High School Chorus pearl button earrings. "Sweetheart Song" to her.

Were attractive in all-silk or- State College, the following will be presentation of a plaganza gowns, fashioned along were in the group:

The necklines were high in en, Angela Nolan, Sandra Wat- bership. front and plunged into rows of ers. Patricia Winston, Alice A buffet supper will be servlarge covered buttons, which Gettys, Burma Lee Smith, Vir- ed after the program. The Rev. fastened down to the waist- ginia Fryer and Odaris John- Joseph S. Grant is chairman lines at the backs. There were son. also insets of satin on each side Mrs. William H. Richardson ing with him are Mrs. Lul of the backs of the brides- introduced guests to the re- Hardesty, Mrs. Ethel Wilson, maids' dresses.

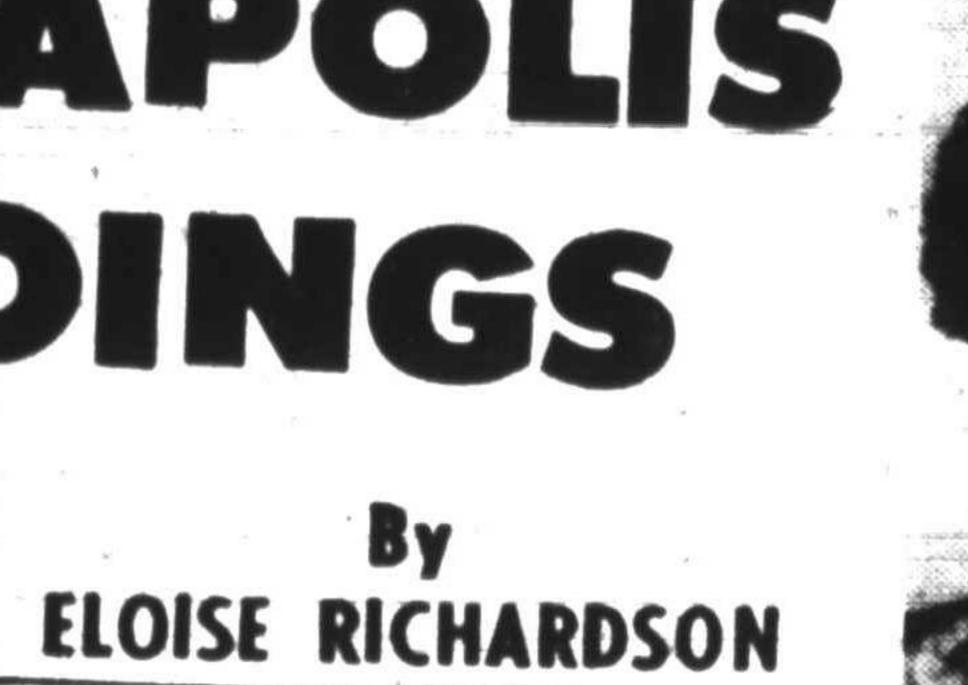

Lovely Odaris Johnson, the wick, and Misses Willa Mae Allen. maid of honor, was in flour Pergerson, Rose Marie Walker, chairman for the social commaids Misses Beverly Brown of friends of the bride, and Mary the supper. Washington and Verna Mitchell Chase, members of the Young- Others assisting her are Miss of Baltimore, wore aquamarine er Set, served as hostesses. | Amanda Nunley, Mrs. Henriet-caught by dainty flowers, and Messrs. Jerome their shoes matched the of the bride, was the flower "Debutante of the Year" in vid H. Croll officiating. pink embroidered nylon organ- A former teacher at Jones born Jan. 13, 1872, the son of dy. Her dainty little costume Elementary School and Adams George and Kate Adams. He was fashioned with a full skirt Park School in Annapolis, she lived here all of his life. and a wide soft pink salin is now a French teacher at He had been a member poleon Howard Jr., the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Those in the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom and attendants were:

She carried a basket of white tarnations and wore pink sheer ylon gloves.

. . . .

The beautiful double ring ceremony was performed by Ceremony was performed by Fride's parants. Mr. and Mrs. Baden, the bride's parants. Mr. and Mrs. Baden, the Clinic of Cherry Hill held its first anniversary celebration at the clinic in the Cherry Hill held its first anniversary celebration at the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end. Nicie Jones is the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end.

organist of the church. | charming in a soft green crea- and Rosetta Howard and Rob-THE BRIDE, who was given ed along princess lines and was sisters and brother of the bride-

Arundel-on-the-Bay, Md.; Mr. all of them including Mrs. MRS. ELLEN DENNIS was practicing the solo that he is portraying a split effect from lines, with a plunging embroid- Mrs. Nathaniel Boston, Lucia Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Ruler, Carter O. Brown. of Leo Boston, all of Glen Burnie, Dt. Sarah Randall read the Mrs. Dennis served a tasty Yours truly saying "so long which was also appliqued here spring flowers and her shoes Md.; and Miss Effie Weather- scripture and Dt. Anna Tonque menu. rhinestone jewelry. The couple is at home Wide ruffled tiers, three of The bridegroom's mother was friends at 1906 McKean Ave.

there were three crinolines un- princess style and her only THE ANNE ARUNDEL derneath the full tulle skirt. | jewelry was a pair of pearl County Branch NAACP will ob-The back of the bodice was earrings. Her large velvet hat serve Brotherhood Week b enhanced by a row of tiny matched the dress. All three presenting a special white satin - covered buttons wore corsages or deep pink gram on Friday, February 20 que to Ancient City Lodge No. bouffant lines and of ballerina Misses Barbara Moore, Bar- 175 of Elks for payment of bara Montgomery, Doris Woot- their $500 NAACP Life memceiving line. Mrs. Mae Fen- Eddie Mitchell and Dr. Aris T. while the brides- Eleanor Murden, childhood mittee which is in charge of They were also in charge of ta Johnson of Glen Burnie and > another childhood friend, and JOHN RICHARD ADAMS, 87 a graduate of zens of Annapolis, died at his

A native of Annapolis, he was

1887 when the Rev. J. B. Mes-

the deceased, whom we met CHERRY HILL NOTES was a Christian gentleman.
His interest in the church never waned or grew stagnant.
"As treasurer of the misa, calm and peaceful."

businesses and in his latter So far the program has fea- for member organizations. al service Feb. 10.

Baden wedding, held at the St. Baden Jr., brother of the bride, Parker, aunts and uncles of the school and later served as a day, Feb. 20 at 8 p.m. Thillip's Episcopal Church on the head usher, Benjamin Mc- bride, Mrs. Sarah Critterton, teacher of woodwork at the The Cherry Hill Chapter of Weren't those cup cakes de-Coy, Alonzo Bracy, and Benjamin Robinson, all of Baltimore:

Coy, Alonzo Bracy, and Benjamin Robinson, all of Baltitimore:

Coy, Alonzo Bracy, and Benjamin Robinson, all of BaltiMrs. Alice E. Morell, all of Baltimore:

Coy, Alonzo Bracy, and Benjamin Robinson, all of BaltiMrs. Adams, who lived in Baltimore for 15 years; was 8 at the Cherry Hill Communias to the amount of coffee Mrs. Aubrey Garcia Baden, became the bride of Daniel Nalowed the ceremonies in the Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spurlock there for seven years.

Dr. and Mrs. Marcus Allen, proprietor of the Gift Shop ty Church. The women in the needed to prepare coffee that community are invited to be will please everyone. Cher. came the bride of Daniel Na- lowed the ceremonies in the Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spurlock. A graduate of the Fashion present.

Warren Adams of Washington, day. Annapolis and William Jayson uncle and cousins of the bride law, Mrs. Blanche Taylor.

The gown of white tulle and Venetian nylon lace, was fashThe wore a pink-sequined Charles Hicks, III of Frederick, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Carroll H. Hynson dedicated the hymn, "What a Joseph Smith presided.

And Mrs. A. Jack Inomas of the Friendly Chorus.

Because of a number of ill members, the singing group dedicated the hymn, "What a Joseph Smith presided.

"missing dozen eggs . Mr. and Mrs. James Crown r moving uptown . Cherry Hill wings you . Jerome Hell w tion by Dubarry. It was designers and brother of the bride. 175 of Elks conducted a spiri- held open house at which ma- wouldn't hang up. tual hour recently at which my parents were present. time music was furnished by At the monthly meeting

By MARJORIE J. WARD the Coordinating Council dis-The eighth anniversary of the cussions were held on the light. Chirch, 827 Cherry Hill Rd. center, the reorganization of years, had worked at the U.S. tured services led by Sisters The Council meets the sec-Naval Academy on the staff of Drawn, Pridgen, Sarah Robin ond Monday in each month The wedding drew many the payroll department until son, Elder J. Lee, and a speci- at 8 p.m. in the Community Church. Organizations and resifeatured in a fashion show to calls . . . he says that they are Dr. and Mrs. George Spauld. Her father, William H. But- be given at the Cherry Hill about home work . . . Perry Sr., Social event of the new year Reed of Charlottesville, Va. ing, Mr. and Mrs. Goldzy Bad. ler, was at one time, a teacher Community Church, Woodview how did you like that repast Annapolis, was the Howard- Ushers were Aubrey Garcia en, and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll of the Annapolis elementary and Cherry Hill Rd. on Fri- at the recent meeting you at-

at the clinic in the Cherry Hill last week-end . . Nicie Jones is Community Church on Wednes- certainly remembered when she comes to Cherry Hill . . . right of Philadelphia, a niece, Community Church celebrated think that other people will for-The wedding march was play the bridegroom.

The wedding march was play the bridegroom.

The wedding march was play the bridegroom.

Alary L. Louison and Blanche Taylor leaders at a worship service about those phone calls you on Sunday. Monday and Tues- have been receiving. . why

BRIDE'S PARENTS - Me. and Mes A. Garcia Baden of Baltimore and An-Mrs. Charles Hicks 3rd, right of Frednapolis are pictured here at left with ding in Annapolis on Saturday when the Badens' debutante daughter was married to Daniel N. Howard Jr., of Raleigh, N. C.

Cooking School scheduled at Sollers Point High School

BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN

TOURING TURNER STATION

prayer on Friday, Feb. 13 a large family, was so ap- visitors present. Methodist Church; 2 p.m., Dun- where his wife is able to take Walnut Ave. who has been on dalk Presbyterian Church and the children for clinical care, Church in Turner Station, the building fund and paid $25 down years is still ailing. theme for the day is: "Lord, at the meeting on Saturday. Women, National Council of campaign.

ing and we, the people of Turn- breaks ground in the future.

. . . tion wagon. He had been serv ing papers in the communit for a number of years.

. . . COMMITTEE has never had a Lowman. Mrs. Mari Foster, back at her the one last Saturday with McRae, and Lucille Blake of an illness.

There are three services for preciative of the fact that there the day 10:30 a.m., Graceland is a place in the neighborhood 7:30 p.m., New Shiloh Baptist that he pledged $150 for the the shut in list for several

the Church of Christ in the The net proceeds from the Mrs. Della Majette la back Sweethearts Ball which will be on the job as a teacher at the of prayer, to pray for all of Has your organization made time at Provident Hospital. This is an inter-racial meet- wagon when the committee at the Stnai Hospital.

the churches of the adjacent New Life Presbyterian Church, grade student at Sollers.

available at the morning services of the New Shilph Bap. are classmates. tist Church on last Sunday. he sermon was delivered by Elementary School provided by the Senier Cheir second trip to Johns No. 1 and the Gospel Chorus. Hospital for surgery. bara Grant of Newport News, her again.

Virginia, a member of St. Paul tric Company will sponsor a crowd continues to grow at Mrs. Lowman is chairman cooking school at the Sollers each meeting. There was not of the district leaders of Bal-It! Women's Convention Auxiliary seems everyone wants to help to the United Baptist Missionthe building fund of the Health ary Convention of Maryland. She gave some inspiring replanned for The World Day of Robert Gwaltney, father of marks on behalf of all of the

Calvin Statham who has been The Health Committee of the ill with a mild attack of pneu-The World Day of Prayer is Turner Elementary School is monia is back in his class at sponsored by United Church selling candy to help with the the Sollers Point High School

The purpose of the Day is held on the 28th will be turned Sollers Point High School after to unite all Christians in a bond over to the Building Fund. | a long spell of Illness and a the peoples of the world, and any plans to help with such a Mrs. Betty Keene Scott. to make an offering for Chris- worthy community project? Do another one of the Sollers Point tian missions at home and something now so that you may teachers is convalesing at her be able to get on the band home after an extended stay It was good to see Rose Anne l

Williams back at school after to welcome the visitors from and chitterling dinner at the since October. She is an eighth Standing room only was greater part of the school term. Rose Anne and Barbara

> Joan Barnes of the Fleming the paster while the music was turned to her school after Among the visitors were Bar- schoolmates were happy to

HEALTH AME Church; Mrs. Amanda Mrs. Ann Hualey is also more enthusiastic meeting than Mrs. Gertrude McRae, Patricia lers Point High School after

READY FOR THE NEXT STEP their climb up the educational ladder Miss Celia Williams and Jerome

Stills are in a happy mood on the night of their graduation from Dunbar High School.

Sincerity' is keynote of A. D. Anderson's success

BROTHERHOOD

COULD BE AMERICA'S DEFENSE

WON'T YOU JOIN THIS CRUSADE TOO?

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

PARK AVE. AND CENTRE ST.

omobile business in a blacksmith shop surrounded by cornfields " 'what out in the country" on Edmondson Ave., Route

Today A. D. Anderson's vast new and used car supermarket in the very center of one of Baltimore's fastest-growing residential communities, right next to beautiful Edmondson Village. When A. D. Anderson started his business he had little in the way of assets, but he and mis coworkers had a sincere desire to serve his customers That he and his associates the fact that today the A. D. Anderson new and used car supermarket is the largest automobile center in the entire MANY OF the men that joined A. D. Anderson in these early days are still associated with him today.

One who is well remembered, recently retired, is Dick Scott. Another, equally as well known, who joined A. D. Anderson in 1931, is Clinton Sav-

Men such as these have made the A. D. Anderson organization an outstanding one. UAW hikes dues to fatten strike fund

DETROIT - The United Automobile Workers International Union has voted to increase monthly dues by $1 a month. This increase is necessary to increase the union strike fund, according t the executive board.

Mr. Anderson is shown above with part of the Anderson Service Team

A. D. ANDERSON

and his entire organization salute

Brotherhood Week

DEALER FOR: CHEVROLET RAMBLER LARK FIAT TRIUMPH Mercedes Benz

AUTHORIZED

BALTIMORE'S FINEST QUALITY USED CARS

When we founded our business 40 years ago, we adopted our own "Good Neighbor Policy." Today with the westward expansion of Baltimore, "our business is booming," for which we most humbly say "Thank:!"

On behalf of our entire organization I extend best wishes for Brotherhood Week and for the principles it sets forth.

Signed) A. D. Anderson

Come See and Save! Maryland's Largest New and Used Car SUPER MARKET

ENTIRE 4600 BLK. EDMONDSON AVE. ROUTE 40

at Edmondson Village LO. 6-5600 LO. 6-8800

Their headpieces, of tulle, the gifts and were assisted by Mrs. Harriet Hull of Galesville.

Robert technician at the Mt. Snai Hos- and was its key man. Said the' members of the Younger Set. one of the most They carried bouquets of The bride white carnations, which had Bates High School here, and a residence on January 27, after been tinted to match their out- 1958 graudate of Morgan Col- a twelve-day illness. fits, and all wore pearl acces- lege, was presented as a debu- Funeral services were held sories. tante by the Me-De-So Club of Saturday at St. Philip's Epis-Little Pamela Baden, a cous- Baltimore in 1955 and was copal Church with the Rev. Da-

Bates Senior High School. THE BRIDEGROOM, who is siah was curate. also a 1958 graduate of Mor- FOR MANY YEARS he serv. gan is an assistant laboratory ed as treasurer of the missio and keeping.

thereby gaining the respect of eighth anniversary "His pew in the chapel was .. He died as he live

DURING HIS lifetime. Mr. got underway on Feb. 3 and the Health Council, the budget Adams had engaged in several will continue until March 8. for the year and a coffee hour

Father David H. Croll, vicar bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. New York City, an uncle of the Adams is survived by a son, at and Mrs. William Brown of Edith Gantt, who at the a gracious hostess to the Chari-der Washington; time was in Johns Hopkins ty Club, Unit 1 recently. Mrs. Cherry Hill Men preparing Miss the father of the Past Exalted Annapolis, but now living in of basketball . . . call out the Chicago, was a special guest. Red Cross quickly...