COOKING IS FUN

Now is time to plan for Christmas menus

For a St. Nick brunch or a quick lunch, Turkey Scramble Sandwich is a tasty dish.

Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in skillet. Add ¼ cup chopped onion and brown lightly. Beat 6 eggs. Add ¼ cup milk or cream, ½ teaspoon salt, dash pepper and 1 cup cooked chopped turkey.

Pour into skillet and cook over low heat, until eggs are thickened, stirring gently. Spread 12 slices of toasted enriched bread with butter or margarine.

Spread egg mixture on 6 slices toast and top with remaining toast. Makes 6 sandwiches.

CURRANT PUFFS are quick to make, but they have all the flavor one looks for in a yeast bread; serve 'em warm for Christmas brunch.

Soften 1 package yeast; compressed or dry, in a cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry). Scald 1 cup milk. Add ¼ cup sugar, ¼ cup shortening and teaspoon salt. Cool to lukewarm. Add 1 cup sifted enriched flour and beat well. Add softened yeast and 2 beaten eggs. Beat well after 1½ cups sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt.

Add 1 cup currants and 1 teaspoon vanilla extract. Mix. Add 2½ cups sifted enriched flour to make a stiff batter. Beat thoroughly until smooth. Cover and let rise until light (about 1 hours). Stir down and drop by spoonfuls into greased 2-inch muffin pans.

Sprinkle with ¼ cup cinnamon sugar and ¼ cup chopped nuts, if desired. Let rise until light (about 20 minutes). Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Makes about 2½ dozen 2-inch puffs.

Coconut cake

It's seldom you find such an unusual and delicious dessert that's so easy to make as COCONUT FROSTED CAKE!

So easy because you start with a cake mix . . . your favorite kind. And unusually delicious because the rich, sugary coconut frosting is baked right on!

This frosting is also simple to make. You just blend the ingredients together with double-rich PET Evaporated Milk. You know, there's just no other form of milk that can match PET's special creaming quality.

Now, in addition to dessert, COCONUT FROSTED CAKE makes a special treat when friends or neighbors drop in for coffee.

COCONUT FROSTED CAKE requires one pkg. white, yellow or spice cake-mix, one tablespoon melted butter or margarine, one cup brown sugar, one-fourth cup PET Evaporated Milk, and one and one-half cups coconut (about 4-oz.)

In 13 x 9 x 2-in. pan bake white, yellow or spice cake made from your favorite cake mix. Meanwhile, mix well the butter, sugar, PET Milk and coconut. When cake is baked, take from oven and at once spread coconut mixture on top.

Return cake to oven for 10 min., or until coconut mixture is bubbly hot. Cool in pan. Serve slightly warm or cold.

61-yard aerial darkens Hurt's finale with Bears

their own 10, seconds before the close of the third quarter.

IT CAME about when a Morgan drive that began on its own 32, reached the Virginia 10-yard line before flattening Wayne Cole, freshman end, recovered a Trojan fumble on the Bear 32, and freshman quarterback Russ Binion steered the homelings 58 yards before losing possession on the visitors' 10.

Fullback Ernest Turner exploded for 20 yards on the last running play of the third quarter. And no sooner had the teams changed goals than Jeter taking the snap at the Virginia 30, dropped back and hit Anderson at midfield.

The speedy Baltimorean grabbed the goal and trudged through the mud as far as the Morgan nine, before being overhauled and brought down by a desperation lunge by fullback Earl Bowen.

Two plays later, Turner spun over his right tackle to pay dirt.

IT WAS the payoff play that spelt the most disastrous season the Bears have endured since the arrival of Hurt on the Hillen Road campus 31 years ago. It also served to dash the hopes of a band of young Bruins who several times during the afternoon seemed on the verge of gifting their coach with a pleasant adieu.

Though facing a heavily-favored rival, the Bears played even in first-down statistics, bagging ten as did their rivals. They twice braced at the line to blunt Trojan thrusts that got to within five yards of the goal line. And after 45 of the 60 minutes had been played, theirs was the team that had to be caught.

THE TROJANS scored first, capitalizing on a fumble — the plague which has harassed the Hurtmen all year.

Tackle Bobby Bryant fell on the ball as the Bears were striving to push their way out of danger. This gifting possession on the Morgan 8. Jeter engineered the TD by sending sequent touchdown Turner over the center of the line on third down.

When left - footed George Franklin missed the conversion attempt, the score was 6-0.

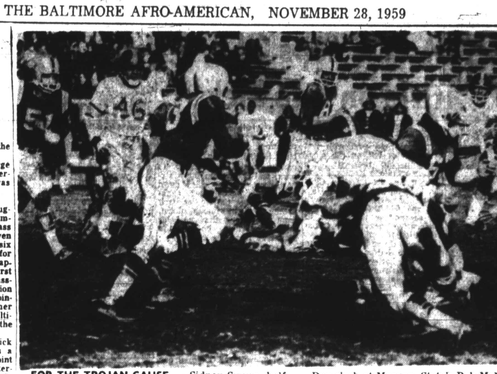
MOMENTS LATER ex-Douglas quarterback Carmie Pompey intercepted a Trojan pass on the Virginia 37. Bowen drove up the middle for six yards, Binion tossed to Cole for two, then handed off to captain James Allen for a first down at the Trojan 24. Passing on first down, Binion caught halfback Homer Robinson at the 16, and the former Carver High School (Baltimore) star romped into the end zone.

Doug Pergerson's place kick was good to give the Bears a 7-6 advantage, a one point lead they held until the Jeter to Anderson toss and the subsequent touchdown.



FOR THE TROJAN CAUSE — Sidney Swann, halfback from Washington, D.C., trundles through a gap in the Morgan line to net a seven-yard gain for the Virginia State College Trojans in the annual Turkey Day clash at Morgan. State's Bob McNeil (51) comes up to block Morgan's Joe Gibson (46) and thus aid his mate. Trojans took the decision on a fourth period touchdown, 12-7.

Fumbles hold Poly Tech to 12-0 win over City

"Hold that ball"

This was the plea of the Poly cheerleaders to their Engineers who were charged for the game with City College that they fumbled the ball away five times in romping over the Collegians for 418 yards and a 12-0 victory Thanksgiving day at Memorial Stadium.

Bob Lumsden's boys were so up for the game that they forgot to hold onto the ball four times, ending their own drives on bobbles.

Ed Stuckrath, 180 - pound demon of the belly ride series, actually boomed into the end zone from the two-yard line so fast in the second quarter, that he forgot to take the ball from quarterback Gil Ladana.

Nevertheless, Ron Klages did manage to score twice with the ball—in the second quarter from the one, and in the third quarter on a fifty-eight yard run.

CITY'S CLIFF MELTON, 173-pound quarterback, passed for 99 yards, hitting "lonesome" left end Alfred Bates, 6-3, 175 pounder, on good pass patterns, but the Poly defense would not let them move the ball near the goal.

City was held to 86 yards rushing. They lost the ball one time on a fumble.

The galloping Poly backs churned up the stadium turf and kicked up dust like ranging steers as the Collegiate bulldogged them in gang tackling only after long gains.

COACH GEORGE YOUNG'S line could not hold against the fearsome running of Larry Rohrbaugh, 5-9, 165; Klages, 6 feet, 190 and Stuckrath, 5-10, 180 pounds.

His runners did little better against the bruising Poly forward wall.

The Melton-to-Bates passing attack was their most potent weapon but fumblelitis of the Poly backs helped their defense.

This was the tenth consecutive year that the Collegians have been defeated by the Engineers.

In the 39-year Thanksgiving Day rivalry, Poly holds a 29-23 lead. Seven games have ended in ties.
